Players Code of Conduct

1. There will be zero tolerance for obscene language or jesters towards other teammates, opposing players, opposing coaches, officials or coaches on their team. Players will be disciplined.
 2. Players will not use or be under the influence of alcohol or banned substance while involved with activities with or cause by their participation in GMHA.
 3. Players shall treat each other, opposing players and coaches plus game officials with respect and show good sportsmanship at all times.
 4. Players are to be of their best behavior in the dressing room. There will be no pushing, bullying or fighting etc. Discipline will be the discretion of the coach on this matter. Parents will be notified of the player's behavior.
 5. Players are expected to attend all practices, games and team functions. Any abuse of this will result in disciplinary action by the coach or GMHA. Player's commitment to his/her competitive team with GMHA must come first before any other competitive team. Any player wishing to be excused for other than medical reasons, must provide the coach with at least 24 hours notice so that he/she may avail of the call up procedure to fill the vacancy created. Failure to give the coaching staff reasonable notice of a no-show for team functions could result in some form of discipline.
- As a Player:
- I will play by the rules of hockey, and in the spirit of the game.
 - I will control my temper - fighting and "mouthing off" can spoil the activity for everyone.
 - I will do my best to be a true team player.
 - I will remember that winning isn't everything - that having fun, improving skills, making friends and doing my best are also important.
 - I will remember that coaches and officials are there to help me. I will accept their decisions and show them respect.
- Notwithstanding any of the forgoing policies, procedures and guideline, the GMHA reserves the right to act in contravention to any of these policies and guidelines, should the circumstance of a specific situation warrant.

I have read and understand the above statements and agree to conduct myself in a matter that demonstrates the standards established in the Players Code of Conduct.
